Single Action Shootists Hawaii

Single Action September!

WHEW* September was a helluva busy month for SASH

With 3 different events this past month, SASH got some really good exposure at the semi-annual Gun Show and the Hunting/Fishing weekend at Koko Head Range. Our monthly match was fairly well attended - with a total of 26 shooters comin' out for this year's last summer match! I'm sure we're all lookin forward to the cooler months rollin our way!

One of our wayward members found his way back home - Jake "Boothill Bandit" Jacobs took a little break from business trips to unwind and get a little dusty at our Sept. match. We also had a guest shooter this month, Jeff Hale - all the way from Dusseldorf, Germany. Hope to see you both back in the islands soon!

The Hunting/Fishing Weekend was a great success! We raised a bundle of dough for the Hawaii Food Bank, and may have picked up a few new members to boot! As usual, people kept coming back to our tents to shoot and hang with the cowboys/girls. We can't help it we're just so darn lovable!

Pair-a-dice Kid (foreground) and Wild Wes give pointers to El Muerte on how to shoot from a "bath tub"... Don't forget to use soap!!

SASH EVENTS

Our annual club party/raffle will be held on Saturday, January 8, 2005. As always, our gracious hosts, El Muerte and Dreadnaught Dolly will open their home to the posse for a night of good food, good drink, and good friends! Oh yea, and good prizes too! More information will be posted in future newsletters.

Thanks to all of our members who came out to this year's events, and who've continued to help out and share the joy of single action shooting with the public!
