

SASH GAZETTE

Single Action Shootists Hawaii

Branded Buck Blazes By...

Buck buried the entire posse this month - winning over 2nd place by almost 20 seconds!

Needless to say - he beat everyone else but good! Grats to Buck for sweeping all 3 stages - now you've got to prove that this wasn't a fluke!

We had a grand ol' closing to the 2005 Summer - hooking a few new shootists: Mike Cole, John "Trig Jett" Highfill, and Bill Meier. And these guys finally decided to take the plunge and join up after comin' around a few times: John "Rob Trains" Rauch & Scott "Uncle Cracker" Kinney. Welcome one and all!

Our match director is coming up with some crazy stages - like the ALL Shotgun Stage called "Big Hip, Little Shoulder"...I'm sure some of you loved that one! I personally shot it clean (now that WAS a fluke), but didn't place in the top five (I got beat out by Blackjack Derringer by half a second, dang nabbit!). 'Course that was my only shining moment...but we won't get into details about the other two stages...cough, cough Procedural? What procedural!?!?

Speaking of interesting stages - Blackjack is lookin to change it up a little. He's preparing a 4-stage match, shot by 2 posses...as well as gasp bringing a semi-auto pistol. (yes, it's SASS sanctioned). Well, I'm sure I speak for everyone when I say "Bring It On Blackjack!!"

Phil "Branded Buck" Rapoza, a.k.a. El Presidente, obligingly signs autographs for his adoring fans...oh wait - never mind - that's a popper back there...
