New Year, Bring 4 New Stages

Happy New Year, 34 Shooters

With the opening of the 2007 SASH Gun Club, January 28 brought out 34 new shooters, with a few other who were just watching from the sidelines.

There were four new stages, with three posses. The idea was if a posse was finished with there stage, that posse could move on to the open stage. I liked the idea of the fourth stage, more shooting. The day ended about 2:30 in the afternoon, a long day with good old friends, few new one and some returning friends

The Stages were:

1. The Horseback
2. The Train
3. A Snake in the Outhouse
4. Suit of Cards

Posse 1: Lead my El Muerte De Dolor, Pair-A-Dice, and Small Paw. This posse included new shooters, father and son, Dan and Daniel Fischberg and Alice Lee.

New Gazette Chief

My name is Ellery "Quik-E" Galanto. I will be taking over the SASH Gazette from Ms. Fyre. If anyone asks, Quik-E, refers to Nestle Quik.

There will be some changes in the future Gazette editions: More pictures, Rules Section, Meet the Cowboy/ Cowgirl Section, Advertise Your Guns, Cowboy Comics and Quotes. Feel free to send in some articles.

The Black Powder Boys

Ever wondered while you were shooting at SASH matches who those cowboys were, that created all that dark cloud of blacksmoke. With all that smoke, I'm surprised one can see the target at all. Alright now you can put a name to these old school gentlemen.

Pictured from left to right: Charlie "Stone Deaf" Maurer, Don "Doc Don" Kyle, and Bob "Bloody Bill" Hogue.

I asked one of the Blackpowder Boys, why use blackpowder? Blackpowder was from the 1890 time period. "Is there another kind of powder?" were a few comments to the use of blackpowder.

Snail mail...or e-mail?

We're taking a poll to see which way you'd prefer to receive your monthly Gazette. If you'd like to get added to the list of e-mailers, and receive the Gazette lightning quick, contact Sharleen "Ms Fyre" Andreshak at shar@hawaii.rr.com and get on the bandwagon!

If the good ol' Pony Express is more your speed, well then make sure your address is on file with Quik-E!

Thanks Y'all!
